ANNOUNCEMENTS.

To the Voters of Wise County:
I am a candidate for Treasurer of Wise County, at the election 1911, subject, however, to the wishes of the Republican party.
Very respectfully,
R. W. HOLLEY.

To the Voters of Wise County:
I hereby announce myself a candidate for Clerk of Circuit Court of Wise County, for election to be held in November, 1911, subject, however, to the desire and wishes of the Republican party of this county. I earnestly solicit your support, and will appreciate anything you may do for me.
Yours very truly,
J. D. DORTCH.

Prof. H. H. Young, Prof. Haislip, Mrs. Young, Misses Kline, Timberlake, Pierce, Morris and Davidson attended the District Teachers' Meeting at East Stone Gap Saturday.

"Lena Rivers," by Mary J. Holmes, the play that comes to the Auditorium on next Friday evening, has become noted for the beautiful gowns worn by the ladies of the company, five in number. Several Parisian and London importations are worn and each is said to be a delight to all the ladies who see the play.

Contractor A. G. Kiser has been at Big Stone Gap several days recently looking over the plans of the proposed federal building, which is to be built in that town. The building will cost about $80,000.—Cinch Valley News.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. S. McConnell left Thursday morning over the V & S. W. for New York and Baltimore, where they will purchase the spring line of merchandise for the firm of Ford & McConnell, Appalachia. They will visit Mrs. McConnell's mother, Mrs. Ruth Wood, who lives in the latter city.

Contractor A. G. Kiser has been at Big Stone Gap several days recently looking over the plans of the proposed federal building, which is to be built in that town. The building will cost about $80,000.—Cinch Valley News.

Mrs. Luther L. Dickenson, who has been in delicate health for several months, left last Sunday for Pennington Gap, her former home, where she will visit, in the hope of regaining her former good health.—Cinch Valley News.

The announcement of the coming of "Lena Rivers" is certain to arouse feelings of pleasure in advance to the countless people who are familiar with Mrs. Holmes' book. The play was taken from the novel and has been the principal success of the season, and it has known an amount of popularity that has surprised even the most of its sanguine well wishers. The play is said to be a delightful reproduction of all the dramatic and comedy scenes of the book. At School Auditorium Friday evening, February 17.

Falls Victim To Thieves.

S. W. Bonds, of Coal City, Ala., has a justifiable grievance. Two thieves stole his health for twelve years. They were a liver and kidney trouble. Then Dr. King's New Life Pills throttled them. He is now free of Constipation, Malaria, Headache and Dyspepsia. See at J. W. Kelly's Drug Store.

A WONDER OF THE AGE has been the success of

LENA RIVERS

It has reached the hearts of millions.

Mrs. W. C. Christian attended Captain Smith's funeral, at Buffalo, Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ayers went down to Louisville last week on a visit to relatives.

Mrs. John Fox, Jr., the noted opera singer, whose stage name is Fritz Scheff, after a visit of a few weeks at her Big Stone Gap home, has returned to New York. While here Mrs. Fox chatted freely with acquaintances regarding the probability of her appearing in Bristol at a later date. She was frank to say that she would be glad to meet an engagement in Bristol in the event the proposed new theatre is built, but not until then. She said that she hoped that whoever undertook the building of a theatre here that they would not fail to give it good ventilation on the sides, and especially in the dressing rooms. Mrs. Fox said that somehow many theatre promoters seem to lose sight of the importance of good ventilation for the dressing rooms. They should have outside ventilation, she declared. She was accompanied by her manager and two maids. The manager wanted to know if Bristol would give Fritz a large audience if she came here to sing. He was assured that she would attract a record-breaking crowd.—Bristol News.

CAPT. JOE SMITH DEAD.

Captain Joe Smith, an aged and prominent citizen living near Buffalo, some distance above town, and for many years well known in Big Stone Gap, died suddenly Sunday morning at his home. Captain Smith was apparently in his usual health on arising, and his death was a shock to his friends and relatives. He was 77 years of age, and a veteran of the Civil war, having been Captain of a Tennessee regiment.

He is survived by a wife and two children; Mrs. Satterfield and one son, Robert Smith. The burial took place near the home Tuesday.

MRS. ARMINTA REESE DIES.

Mrs. Arminta Reese, an aged lady of Turkey Cove, died Sunday at her home from a complication of diseases.

She is survived by her husband and a number of children. One of her daughters is Mrs. Sanford Johnson, of Wise, a sister-in-law of Mrs. William Young, formerly of this place. Her two sons, Auburn and Milton, resided with their mother.

HE MAKES FOLKS LAUGH

Did you know that Robert Manlove, the "Mirth Provoker," will be at the school auditorium tonight (Wednesday) for the express purpose of making you laugh? He will give a varied program of the best in music and literature, particularly along the lines of humor—a thoroughly high class entertainment in every respect.

He states that his mission is to make folks laugh. Some of us have most forgotten how during these hard times, so let's all go up to the school house tonight and have a high old time, and, incidentally, keep the management out of a nice deep financial hole they have fallen into on account of the lack of patronage for these Lyceum attractions.
